

LIVINGWELL CANCER RESOURCE CENTER
ANNOUNCES $15,000 GRANT
FROM THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION OF THE FOX RIVER VALLEY

GENEVA, IL. February 7, 2017 – LivingWell Cancer Resource Center, part of Northwestern Medicine, is pleased to announce the notification of a grant award from the Community Foundation of the Fox River Valley in the amount of $15,000. This approved grant will support LivingWell's website redesign.

"We are grateful for our partnership with the Community Foundation of the Fox River Valley, their continued support, and their belief in our mission," said Nancy Vance, Executive Director at LivingWell. "We are committed to continuing to lead the way by providing the highest quality psychosocial support services available and we appreciate the commitment of The Community Foundation of the Fox River Valley to LivingWell."

About LivingWell

LivingWell provides over 75 programs and services to people facing cancer in their lives. All programs and services are free of charge, thanks to the generosity of the community. Our services include counseling and social work support services, educational workshops, support groups, children and family services and networking opportunities. Additional programs help participants enhance nutrition and wellness, boost exercise and stress management, cope with bereavement and inspire survivorship. LivingWell is located at 442 Williamsburg Avenue in Geneva.
