The following twenty-three coaches were inducted into the West Aurora High School Sports Hall of Fame as of 2016. Their outstanding contributions to the West Aurora High School athletic program resulted in local, regional, state and often national recognition. They each demonstrated high levels of character, leadership and sportsmanship while representing West Aurora High School.

Jack Albright                    Rick Albright                   Marger Apsit                Joseph Axelson

John Bauer                        Carol Bell         John Bell                        Brian Brooks